

In tidying out a drawer of mine, I came across the enclosed programme from 1913. Just in case, you haven't already seen one of this age, I'm enclosing it for you to keep. As well as Sheila Edkins' father-in-law being on the committee, I see that one of my great-grandfathers was a subscriber. I see that 2 Kilbourns were in the orchestra which was conducted by Nicholas Kilbourn. Many years ago (?15) I visited Durham University Library on Palace Green to research his history for Roger Kelly. ...!! Keen sale!
