

My reason for loving All Creatures Now Are Merry-minded is basically that it's such fun! It's one of the favourites of the group with whom I sing madrigals on Tuesday mornings in normal circumstances, it makes us all smile.

We sing several Oriana madrigals and plan to learn more. The two Queen Elizabeths, while very different characters, have experienced and overcome many of the same challenges and I like the link to the first Elizabethan age, being old enough to remember the launch of the present one.

From Lesley Wright